

	Code Section	Title	Change	Notes
Section 1
1.	28.90.020	Form of application	Increasing the deposit amount from $50.00 to $200.00 for a recount	Increases the deposit amount for recounts that are not automatic. Brings the Municipality of Anchorage in line with other Alaska Municipalities and Jurisdictions. Both the City of Fairbank and Fairbanks North Star Borough require a $200.00 deposit for a recount that is not automatic.
Section 2
2.	28.100.010	Contest procedure	Adds a <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • $1,000 deposit in the case of an election contest, • Liabilities for frivolous election contests, • a reimbursement for valid election contests, and • connection to AMC 28.90.060, if the election contest results in a recount. 	Adds a $1,000 deposit for bring an election contest to the Assembly, which brings the Municipality of Anchorage in line with other Alaskan Municipalities and Jurisdictions. The Municipality of Anchorage is the largest jurisdiction without a deposit to file an election contest. Both the Matsu Borough and City of Wasilla require a $1,000 deposit. Purpose is to protect tax payer dollars in the case of an election contest. Adds liabilities if a frivolous election contest is brought before the Assembly and the Assembly incurred expenses in investigating and deliberating over the contest. The Ketchikan Gateway Borough has similar language in code. Adds a reimbursement clause of the $1,000 if the election contest is found valid. For example, both Matsu Borough and City of Homer have similar reimbursement clauses. Lastly, changes link to the Municipality of Anchorage’s recount code if the election contest results in a recount.
Section 3

	Code Section	Title	Change	Notes
3.	28.200.110	Unlawful interference with voting in the second degree.	Adds three state election crimes to Municipal Code and defines "other valuable thing."	Change would allow the Municipality to prosecute certain election crimes involving threats or actions to induce or compel a voter from voting or to vote in a specific way. Would also allow the Municipality to prosecute certain election crimes involving payment or the exchange of something of value for a vote or abstention from voting. Change also includes a definition of what are and are not considered "other valuable thing".
Section 4
4.	28.200.120	Voter misconduct in the second degree.	Adds one additional state election crime to Municipal Code.
Section 5
5.	28.100.170	Unlawful interference with an election.	Adds an entirely new section to Title 28 titled unlawful interference with an election.	Introduces a new section of election crimes to code from State Statute to help protect the integrity of municipal elections. Allows the Municipality to prosecute crimes of unlawful interference with an election.